

LIBRARY VOICE

ISSUE NO. 6

APRIL 2026

"Libraries always remind me that there are good things in this world."

Lauren Ward

MESSAGE

It is a matter of great pride and pleasure to present the 6th issue of Library Voice, the library newsletter of Chandigarh Business School of Administration. This publication continues to serve as a meaningful platform for sharing knowledge, promoting academic engagement, and highlighting the evolving role of our library in supporting excellence in management education.

In today's dynamic business environment, access to reliable information and the ability to analyze it critically are essential skills. Our library plays a pivotal role in nurturing these competencies by providing a rich blend of print and digital resources, including access to leading databases such as EBSCO, DELNET and NDL. These resources empower our students and faculty to stay informed, innovative, and research-oriented.

I encourage our students to actively utilize the library's resources to enhance their academic learning, support project work, and develop a habit of continuous reading and inquiry. The library is not just a place for study—it is a hub for intellectual growth, creativity, and informed decision-making.

I commend the dedicated efforts of the library team in bringing out this informative issue. I also invite students and faculty members to contribute their ideas and insights to make Library Voice an even more enriching and collaborative endeavor.

Wishing all readers an engaging and insightful experience.

It gives me immense pleasure to present the sixth issue of Library Voice, a reflection of our continued commitment to fostering a dynamic and resource-rich learning environment at Chandigarh Business School of Administration.

In an era driven by information and innovation, the library stands as a vital pillar of academic and professional growth. Our mission is to support the teaching, learning, and research needs of our students and faculty by providing seamless access to high-quality print and digital resources. With subscriptions to renowned databases such as EBSCO, DELNET and NDL, along with a growing collection of management literature, the library strives to equip our users with the tools needed for informed decision-making and scholarly excellence.

This issue highlights key resources, services, and initiatives designed to enhance user engagement and promote effective utilization of library facilities. I encourage all students to explore these offerings, develop strong information literacy skills, and make the library an integral part of their academic journey.

I extend my sincere appreciation to the library team for their dedication in bringing out this issue, and I invite valuable contributions and suggestions from our readers to make Library Voice more vibrant and impactful.

Staying Ahead in a Dynamic Business World

AI in Business: Transforming Decision-Making

Artificial Intelligence (AI) is reshaping business operations—from chatbots in customer service to predictive analytics in marketing and finance. Organizations use AI to automate tasks, gain insights, and make faster, data-driven decisions. For management students, understanding AI tools and their applications is becoming essential.

Key Takeaway: Blend business knowledge with tech awareness to stay competitive.

Startup Ecosystem in India: A Hub of Innovation

India is one of the fastest-growing startup ecosystems, driven by sectors like fintech, edtech, and sustainability. Initiatives such as Startup India and strong investor support have created vast opportunities. Startups value creativity, adaptability, and problem-solving—making them ideal learning grounds for students.

Key Takeaway: Explore, experiment, and consider entrepreneurship as a viable career path.

ESG & Sustainability: The Future of Responsible Business

Businesses today are judged not only by profits but also by their environmental and social impact. ESG (Environmental, Social, Governance) is shaping corporate strategies and investment decisions globally. Understanding sustainability practices is crucial for future managers and leaders.

Key Takeaway: Responsible business is not optional—it's the future.
